

LOLLYPOTZ

LOUISE CURTIS

Louise Curtis is the owner and founder of Lollypotz. She lives in Canberra with her husband Matthew and her two boys aged five and two.

Louise started her business nine years ago and re-branded the Lollypotz concept in early 2009 as a franchise model. What has eventuated is an amazing success story with over 35 franchises sold across Australia and New Zealand. Louise found a niche in the market to suit women of all ages, with 95 percent of franchise owners being women.

Louise is a previous Telstra Awards winner having won the ACT Business Women's Award for Business Owner and Innovation and her business, winning the Telstra Small Business Awards in 2008.

FRANCHISE WOMAN OF THE YEAR

Lollypotz

Chocolate Bouquets

www.lollypotz.com.au
1300 565 597

A fantastic opportunity to join Australia's latest and fastest growing gift sensation

Excellent opportunities available throughout Australia and New Zealand.

Lollypotz franchise owners make and deliver beautiful chocolate bouquets in their large and exclusive territory. They even make money if a customer from within their territory orders a bouquet anywhere in Australia or New Zealand.

Lollypotz provides excellent training, induction and ongoing support to franchise owners.

For further information about this Award Winning Company contact:

Lia Barnes
The Franchise Shop
Phone: 1300 139 557
enquiries@thefranchiseshop.com.au